

Declaration that a reptile is a legal species and that the reptile and the reptile's parents have been born in captivity

The Norwegian Food Safety Authority recommends that everyone who imports, sells and keeps reptiles completes this form to satisfy the requirement for documentation in Section 3(2) of the Norwegian Regulation of 11 May 2017 No 597 Prohibiting Exotic Animals to be Imported, Sold, or Kept in Captivity (Regulation on Exotic Animals). The Declaration and attachments must be kept with the animal and presented when requested by The Norwegian Food Safety Authority.

1. The animal is kept by

Name of person
or business

Road:

Postcode and place:

Telephone no.:

2. The previous animal keeper was

Name of person
or business

Road:

Postcode and place:

Country:

3. This document applies to an individual with specified characteristics

Gender:

Date of birth:

Size, colour, markings and other special characteristics:

4. This animal belongs to a species that is legal in accordance with Section 3 of the Regulation on Exotic Animals

This animal is a member of the species:

Norwegian common species name:

Scientific/Latin
species name:

5. The animal and the animal's parents were born in captivity.

Tick boxes that apply and strike through information that does not apply.

- The animal and the animal's parents were born at the premises of the animal keeper.
- The animal and the animal's parents were born at the premises of the previous animal keeper.
- The animal and the animal's parents were born at the premises of _____

Name of person
or business _____

Road: _____

Postcode and place: _____

Country: _____

- I do not know where the animal and the animal's parents were born.
- The animal keeper was the original importer of the animal to Norway from _____
- A person other than the animal keeper was the original importer of the animal to Norway from _____

6. This document has the following attachments:

- a colour photo of the animal in A4 format which shows important characteristics confirming that the animal is a member of the legal species
- contract or certificate which shows from whom the animal keeper has purchased the animal
- a copy of the CITES permit
- other documents relating to the animal's species and origin

Place, date: _____

Signature of the animal keeper: _____

Signature of the previous animal keeper: _____